

CURRICULUM HIGHLIGHTS

MATHS INC MENTAL MATHS

In maths this half term, we will be focusing on place value, the four operations, negative numbers and roman numerals. In maths retrieval, we will be looking at squared and cubed numbers.

SCIENCE

The children will be using their scientific enquiry to compare everyday materials based on their properties. We will carry out investigations using skills such as prediction, setting up a fair test, recording results and drawing conclusions.

HISTORY

This term, in History, we will be looking at Ancient Greece - How Greeks have shaped the world now? We will explore democracy, Sparta and the Olympics. Using our historical enquiry we will examine sources evidence and interpretations.

ART

In Art this term, the children will be looking at George Seurat. The children will create a piece inspired by this artist using sketching and painting.

PE

This half term, we will be working on our handball skills and be incorporating this into an invasion game of wide attack. The children will build upon their teamwork and endurance skills throughout.

COMPUTING

During our online safety lessons, the children will look at how to manage social medias and how to use these safely with the correct privacy settings. The children will explore communications, internet addresses, data packets, working together and communicating responsibly.

MFL

In this term, the children will continue to build on their phonetic knowledge. We will be exploring fruits: naming, spelling, likes and dislikes as well as asking questions around this.

ENGLISH INC READING

This half term, you child will explore and write a campaign speech, the end of a narrative and a . There will be a focus on retrieval style comprehension questions in reading

R.E

This term the religion of focus is Judaism. We will explore a child living out the religion, significant people, events and objects. Festivals of the faith as well as the different communities within the religion.

GEOGRAPHY

Our Geography curriculum this term explores the question, 'Natural Resources: What are they, where are they found and why are they important? The topic explores: renewable and non-renewable sources, global production, economic minerals and trees.

DT

This term, your child will be using their creative skills to design, bake and make a celebration cake. The unit will give them the opportunity to create a computer-aided design. At the end, the children in small groups will have made and decorated a celebration cake!

MUSIC

This half term, we will be working with the music specialist teacher to use all of the skills of singing, dancing, playing and composing create a performance for all the classes. The children will be taught how to play the clarinet.

RSHE

This term, the children will be looking at personal identity, exploring their own and others. We will explore gender stereotypes and how they can challenge these respectfully.

WEBSITES

Times Table Rockstars (logins will be provided) - <https://ttrockstars.com/>
Language Angels (logins will be provided) - Login \(languageangels.com\)

CURRICULUM HIGHLIGHTS

MATHS INC MENTAL MATHS

In maths this half term, we will be focusing on fractions and geometry. In maths retrieval, we will be looking at word problems.

ENGLISH INC READING

This half term, you child will explore and write a campaign speech, the end of a narrative and a . There will be a focus on inference and summary style comprehension questions in reading.

SCIENCE

The children will be using their scientific enquiry to explore gravity. We will carry out investigations using skills such as prediction, setting up a fair test, recording results and drawing conclusions.

R.E

This term the religion of focus is Christianity. We will explore a child living out the religion and looking at the big question of 'Was Jesus the Messiah?'. We will be making links across multiple religions and considering how these beliefs are lived out today.

HISTORY

This term, in History, we will be looking at Ancient Greece - How Greeks have shaped the world now? We will explore democracy, Sparta and the Olympics. Using our historical enquiry we will examine sources evidence and interpretations.

GEOGRAPHY

Our Geography curriculum this term explores the question, 'Natural Resources: What are they, where are they found and why are they important? The topic explores: renewable and non-renewable sources, global production, economic minerals and trees.

ART

In Art this term, the children will be looking at George Seurat. The children will create a piece inspired by this artist using sketching and painting.

DT

This term, your child will be using their creative skills to design, bake and make a celebration cake. The unit will give them the opportunity to create a computer-aided design. At the end, the children in small groups will have made and decorated a celebration cake!

PE

This half term, we will be working on gymnastics skills and creating their own sequence. The children will also be working on their football skills, working together as a team.

MUSIC

This half term, we will be working with the music specialist teacher to use all of the skills of singing, dancing, playing and composing create a performance for all the classes. The children will be taught how to play the clarinet.

COMPUTING

During our online safety lessons, the children will look at how to manage social medias and how to use these safely with the correct privacy settings. The children will explore the skill of reviewing websites and by the end of the half term, have had a go at creating their own.

RSHE

This term, the children will be looking at how money can be managed. We will be exploring the differences between saving and spending. The children will consider their responsibility with this as they get older.

MFL

In this term, the children will continue to build on their phonetic knowledge. We will be exploring vegetables and how to express their likes and dislikes with this.

WEBSITES

Times Table Rockstars (logins will be provided) - <https://ttrockstars.com/>
Language Angels (logins will be provided) - Login \(languageangels.com\)